Definition.

A symbol is an icon which communicates an item of information in a simplified manner. New symbols first have to be learnt, in order to subsequently be understood without an explanatory note. It is thus expedient to adopt existing symbolism and translate it into the specific design idiom of the smart brand.

Look and feel.

The smart symbol language is clear, simple, linear, and bold. Its style is derived from the bold design idiom of the FOR smart font family. In addition to its informative function, it also enriches and promotes the lively, young, and multifaceted overall image of the smart brand.
